COURT TERM WAS SHORT.

Little Business to be Disposed Of.

ADJOURN TOMORROW.

No Cases of Sensational Nature.

The Benjamin Brothers Acquitted of Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill—Other Trials.

Court convened Monday, Judge James Aldrich presiding. Solicitor Sease and Stenographer Motte were on hand.

The indications are that the criminal business will be finished by tomorrow afternoon and civil business will be confined to equity cases, requiring no juries.

L. C. and J. O. Benjamin were acquitted of assault with intent to kill Bud Hill.

A true bill was found against Joe Davis, colored, for murder. Davis killed Tom Harris, colored, on Mr. Henry Kennedy's place near here.

In the case of State vs E. G. Fuller, indictment for disposal of property under a lien, the jury found a verdict of guilty of said offense to the extent of $20.00 or less.

In case of Joe Davis for murder, a consent verdict of not guilty was ordered.

The trial of Will Jacks for larceny was begun yesterday evening.

NEW R. F. D. ROUTES.

Start from Princeton—The Territory Covered and Those in Charge.

The work of establishing R. F. D. routes is being rapidly pushed. It is a commendable system and of immense benefit to the people. The hustling little community of Princeton has been made a distributing point. Two new routes, numbers 1 and 2 have been recently established to start out from there. Route No. 1 is Mr. Miles P. Senn's and covers twenty miles, part being in Greenville county. Route No. 2 is Mr. Charles Simpson's and covers 18 miles. This makes three R. F. D. routes and one star route for Princeton. This makes Princeton an important country post office. Mr. J. T. Crane is post master there. He will probably have assistance shortly, by reason of these improvements. THE ADVERTISER will reach the section traversed by these routes the day it is printed. These routes will start February 1st.

High Class Fertilizer.

The intelligent farmer is careful to know what he is buying when he gets his Fertilizer supply.

I am offering Royster's Guano and Acids.

It is a well known fact that Mr. Royster uses Fish Scrap entirely for his concentrated goods. He uses no cotton seed meal. These goods have been used for several years in Laurens County and have given universal satisfaction. Royster's acids are second to none.

I am also handling the celebrated Ober & Sons Co.'s guano which are too well known to Laurens farmers to need any recommendation.

These goods a man can conscientiously commend as being all that is claimed for them.

I shall be glad to have your orders and inquiries.

W. C. IRBY.

Half a cent buys enough SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT for two coats on one square foot of surface.

AMONG OUR FRIENDS.

Mrs. Wm Vance of Clinton has been visiting friends here.

Mrs. S. M. Wilkes and family are visiting Mrs. H. A. Webb in Greenwood.

News has been received here that Mr. J. P. Gray of San Antonio, Tex., is seriously ill.

The reception at Mrs. T. H. Nelson's scheduled for last night has been postponed.

Col. and Mrs. T. B. Crews left for Greenwood yesterday to attend the ninety-ninth anniversary of the former's cousin, Mrs. Susan Hill, which occurred on the 27th instant. Mrs. Hill, formerly Miss Susan Crews, is a sister of the late Stanley Crews, one of the patriarchs of Greenwood, who died about two years ago, at the age of ninety-eight.

Small Freight Wreck.
A freight car laden with coal on a down freight train from Spartanburg on the C. & W. C. railroad Friday morning left the track and was badly smashed. The wreck was due to the hopper of a car becoming detached from body of the car.

Mrs. Anthony Fuller Dead.
Mrs. A. C. Fuller died at her home near Trinity Monday night. She was 77 years old. Her husband, Dr. A. O. Fuller, Mr. Carl Fuller, Mrs. Ludie Bolt and Mr. Glenn Fuller survive her. She will be sorely missed in her community, and her bereaved ones have the sympathy of all.

Mill "Head" Sale.
A ready made white garment sale conducted by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church was started and successfully closed last week. This trafficking was done at the Laurens Drug Co.'s and was facetiously dubbed "Great Mill 'Head' Sale." A neat sum was realized.

Missionary to Preach.
The Rev. W. H. Hudson, who has been a Missionary in China for nine years, and who expects to return to that land in the spring will occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church here next Sunday and evening. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Hudson, whose support as a Missionary is furnished by this Church.

A Narrow Escape.
Mr. J. D. Mock and daughter while out driving last Friday had a narrow escape. Their horse became frightened at the wrecked coal car, and being unmanageable backed off the high embankment on North Harper Street, near Dr. J. T. Poole's. The occupants were pitched out and the buggy wrecked. Mr. Mock was uninjured but his daughter received a severe strain of the arm. The horse received not a scratch.

Send for This.
Every one who has a garden or farm should write to T. W. Wood & Sons Richmond, Va., for their Seed Book for 1903. It is beautifully gotten up and well printed, and is really a complete hand-book of information, both for the garden and farm. It is peculiarly valuable to our southern growers, as it gives practical information about the seeds best adapted to our own section.

Business Change.
The McCord Merchandise Company has sold its goods, clothing, shoes, hats, clothing, etc., stock to J. E. Minter & Bro. and will hereafter deal only in millinery and dress goods. A fine stock of the latter is carried. See advertisement. Meanwhile J. E. Minter & Bro. are offering rare bargains in the goods bought at a sacrifice from the McCord Merchandise Co. which they advertise in this issue.

HEROES HONORED.

Meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy Friday.

The Laurens Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, met last Friday with Mrs. Jno. F. Bolt. The meeting was to commemorate the birthdays of Generals Robert E. Lee and "Stonewall" Jackson.

Mrs. James Farrow, the president, presided. The attendance was large. Miss Perrin Farrow read a paper of interest and value.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Bolt, the hostess. Her daughters, Miss Nellie and little Misses Jessie assisted in serving. The decorations were especially pretty in pink and white, colors of the Confederacy. Pictures of Confederate heroes in the room were decorated in the colors.

MERCHANTS NEWS.

NOTICE—We have changed the date of closing our mill ends to Monday night, February 2, in order to give all who are in town salesday an opportunity to get some of the wonderful bargains.

Davis, Roper & Co.
Your last chance at the sale of mill ends will be Monday, February 2nd.

NEW RAILWAY TO BE BUILT.

Will Connect Ware Shoals with Southern.

COMPANY ORGANIZED.

Work will be Commenced at Once.

Company Bridge to be Constructed—Telephone Connection with Laurens Already Established.

The Ware Shoals Railway Company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $10,000; N. B. Dial and J. O. Fleming and T. R. McGowan being the incorporators.

A railway is to be built at once from Ware Shoals Junction, the new Junction on the Southern, to Ware Shoals, a distance of five miles. Work will begin in a few weeks. A temporary bridge across the Saluda is also to be built and will soon be completed.

The telephone line, with a double circuit, has already been completed and is in operation from Laurens to Ware Shoals.

It goes without saying that the new railway will mean a great deal for the development of not only the Shoals property but the neighboring country on both sides of the river.

Col. J. L. Young Dead.
Col. John L. Young of Union died last Thursday. He was about 83 years old. Col. Young was a native of Laurens. His wife who died some years ago was Miss Janie Garlington, sister of Messrs. Creswell and S. D. Garlington. He had many friends in Laurens who hear of his death with sorrow. Mr. C. Garlington attended the funeral.

Monday will be the last day of the gigantic sale of mill ends. Prices cut throughout the store.

Farmers Alliance Meeting.

There will be a called meeting of Leesville Alliance, No. 525, Saturday, Jan. 31, at 2 o'clock P. M. Our regular meetings hereafter will be held Saturdays before the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month at the same hour.

Our Alliance is growing rapidly in numbers. We have now about thirty members on our roll and several applicants to be initiated.

All former members of the Alliance desiring to enroll with us, must come before the first of April, or they will have to pay the initiation fee.

All Alliances in the county should go to work and re-organize at once. If some member in each union would call a meeting it would be no trouble to get the machinery started again. If three or four more Alliances would re-organize in the county we could have a County Alliance and five members are sufficient to start a sub-ordinate Alliance.

I am sure any of the members of Leesville Alliance would gladly meet with and assist any other Alliance in re-organizing, where they needed any assistance.

We will buy in union this year, through our business agent, Hon. O. P. Goodwin, at least one hundred and fifty tons of fertilizer and probably more.

NEWS OF GRAY COURT.

Death of Mrs. J. K. Satterfield—Other Matters.

GRAY COURT, Jan. 26.—Mrs. J. K. Satterfield died at her home near Dials Church on last Friday. She leaves a husband and a large family of children.

Mr. S. D. Garrison, who has been clerking for J. W. Williams & Co. of Pelzer, S. C., is at home on a short vacation.

Miss Carrie Peden came home on a visit from Chicora on last Saturday.

Mrs. T. F. Jones attended the marriage of her sister at Lisbon last week. Miss Alice McCauley is teaching in the literary department of Gray Court-Owings Institute.

We still hear of a good deal of small pox below here, but nobody seems uneasy.

Mr. J. T. Peden is better.

Mr. Clarence Shell is also better.

The farmers are beginning to chafe on account of the weather. They want to plough, but if Mr. Hiers' predictions are true, they will not get to do much except make fires for the next month.

NOTES FROM DIALS.

On last Friday about 9 A. M. the Angel of Death came and took away from our midst one of our best women, Mrs. Sallie Satterfield. She was a devoted Christian and a consistent member of Dials Church. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at this place on Saturday at 11 A. M. She leaves a husband and eight children who have the profound sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

Rev. J. K. McCain filled his regular appointment at this place Sunday afternoon, but owing to the very inclement weather the congregation was rather small.

Your correspondent accompanied by W. B. Abernethy made a flying visit to Greenville on Friday returning Saturday.

The people have not been able to do any farm yet, as the weather has been so severe.

BACH.

WORK HARDLY YET COMMENCED.

General Assembly and Its Proceedings.

LAURENS MEMBERS.

They Have Made a Favorable Impression.

Mr. Nichols Bill as to Duplicates of Liens—The Race for Associate Justice.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 28.—The general assembly has not "pulled itself together and gotten down to hard work" yet. Always it requires a couple of weeks for the two houses to unlimber. There are elections to be held and governors to inaugurate, not to mention the time required for the houses to perfect their own organizations.

Laurens has as usual a good strong delegation of hard-headed practical men who say no more than is necessary and command attention when they speak. Representative Cooper has numbers of friends in both houses, is chairman of an important committee and has places on other committees that count largely in shaping legislation. Mr. Nichols is universally liked and is a fine representative of the sturdy farmer element of the state. He has the respect of all the influential members. On practical matters affecting the interests of the people who till the soil his advice always has weight, and, moreover, he is a man of breadth of view and his positions are safe and well taken. Mr. Irby, the chairman of the delegation, is one of the youngest members in the whole body, probably the youngest, but he has a place on the judiciary committee and is rapidly becoming familiar with legislative duties. He has met with a warm, hearty reception and is making numbers of friends.

In the senate, Mr. Goodwin is an influential member. He is not a talkative member but he is an effective speaker, makes his points clearly and forcibly and is an all round valuable man. It is a source of real gratification to a Laurens man to come here and find that his delegation occupies so strong a position in the respect and confidence of the law-makers of the state.

Mr. Nichols has introduced a bill providing that persons giving liens, chattel mortgages and similar contracts shall be provided with duplicate copies of them. Under the present system, an ignorant man may sign a lien or chattel mortgage and the party to whom it is given takes charge of it and he never sees it again. These papers are nearly always made on printed blanks and the provisions thereof usually cover the heavens, the earth and the waters beneath. It is of course an easy matter for a dishonest man to make additions to the paper after it has been executed. This is especially true as to that class of papers which are indexed but not recorded in full in the clerk's office. I can conceive of no reasonable objection to the measure. Among trained and careful business men it is the invariable custom for both parties to have copies of all contracts. It seems much more important that ignorant and illiterate persons be provided with this business protection. Moreover, I think it is an important matter. On its face, it does not seem to involve any profound reform but in practice it would be found to prevent a considerable amount of oppression and dishonesty. Forunately, very few men are sufficiently dishonest to make a change in a paper after it has been executed but one swindler can impose on a large number of helpless people in the course of a season. Of course a man who changes a written contract after it has been executed and delivered is guilty of forgery and may be sent to the penitentiary if convicted but the difficulty is that in this class of cases detection is almost impossible. Hence the bill would have great beneficial effect if enacted.

There is plenty of interest in the race for chief justice. The entries are Tribble of Anderson, Woods of Marion, Robert Aldrich of Barnwell, S. J. Simpson of Spartanburg, Gruber of Colleton, J. F. J. Caldwell of Greenwood and Ex-Judge Izlar of Orangeburg. The impression is that Mr. Woods will undoubtedly lead on the first ballot. Some of our members, probably two of them, will vote for Mr. Simpson, a native Laurens man and lawyer who has scarcely a superior in the state, certainly not in this race. Another is understood to favor Major Caldwell who is also one of the very best of South Carolina lawyers. However, with the material to select from it is fairly certain that an able jurist will be chosen. Mr. Woods is a man of great learning and spotless character. Mayor Park of Greenwood, formerly of Laurens, is here in the interests of his partner, Major Caldwell.

I saw General Bonham of Anderson here to-day. It will afford his numerous Laurens friends pleasure to know that he is almost recovered from his recent severe illness and is looking strong and well.

It is hard to predict what the legislature will do as to suggested measures of more general interest. In all likelihood a child labor law will be enacted but it will be conservative in its provisions. In fact, there is little danger of reckless or revolutionary legislation.

a general assembly, a governor and state officers who are as a rule men of discretion—men who will go slow and know what they are doing.

One little recommendation of Governor Heyward's inaugural indicates that he is a man of his own head. He doubtless realizes that the trend of sentiment is squarely against an appropriation for an exhibit at the St. Louis fair. The appropriation will not be made and his recommendation will be rejected. If he had been a demagogue or even a timid politician he could easily have said nothing about the St. Louis fair. Nobody would have noticed the omission. I think his recommendation should be rejected, that the appropriation would be an extravagance. The state could very well afford the little money involved, it is not true that South Carolina is a pauper, much as many people insist that she is, but these facts are growing too common. It is time to leave them alone. The exhibit would not pay. But Governor Heyward believes otherwise and I think it is a good sign that he was willing to say so.
